The Data We Collect About You

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you including:

- Identity Data includes first name, maiden name, last name, username or similar identifier, marital status, title, date of birth and gender.
- Contact Data includes billing address, home and/or contact address, email address and telephone numbers.
- Transaction Data includes details about payments to and from you, details of your education where you request our services and details about you when you register to use our site.
- Technical Data includes internet protocol (IP) address, your login data, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform and other technology on the devices you use to access this website.
- Profile Data includes your username and password, your interests, preferences, feedback and survey responses.
- Usage Data includes information about how you use our website, products and services.
- Marketing and Communications Data includes your preferences in receiving marketing from us and our third parties and your communication preferences.

We also collect, use and share Aggregated Data such as statistical or demographic data for any purpose. Aggregated Data may be derived from your personal data but is not considered personal data in law as this data does not directly or indirectly reveal your identity. For example, we may aggregate your Usage Data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website feature, length of visits to certain pages, page interaction information. However, we do not collect any Special Categories of Personal Data about you (this includes details about your race or ethnicity, religious or philosophical beliefs, sex life, sexual orientation, political opinions, trade union membership, information about your health and genetic and biometric data). Nor do we collect any information about criminal convictions and offences.

How Is Your Personal Data Collected?

We use different methods to collect data from and about you including through:

Direct interactions. You may give us your Identity and Contact Data by filling in forms on our site or by corresponding with us by post, phone, email or otherwise. This includes personal data you provide when you:

- request our services (whether paid or free);
- request information from us;
- create an account on our website;
- request marketing to be sent to you;
- enter a promotion or survey;
- give us some feedback.
- Automated technologies or interactions. As you interact with our website, we may automatically collect Technical Data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns. We collect this personal data by using cookies, server logs and other similar technologies.

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to.

We collect such Non-personal and Personal information for the following purposes:

- Where we need to perform the contract, we are about to enter into or have entered into with you.
- To provide you with the information, products and services that you request from the website.
- To provide our Users with ongoing customer assistance if required
- To be able to contact our Visitors and Users with general or personalized product-related notices and promotional messages;
- To create aggregated statistical data and other aggregated and/or inferred Non-personal Information, which may use to provide and improve our respective services;
- To comply with any applicable laws and regulations.

If you fail to provide personal data

Where we need to collect personal data by law, or under the terms of a contract we have with you and you fail to provide that data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract and services we have or are trying to enter into with you. In this case, we may not be able to commence our services for, but we will notify you if this is the case at the time.

Data retention

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

If you would like to: access, correct, amend or delete any personal information (customer data file) we have about you, you are invited to contact us at contact@purplenyx.com. This does not include any data we are obliged to keep for administrative, legal, or security purposes.
